TRIHYDRO CORPORATION RECEIVES
INNOVATOR OF THE YEAR AWARD AT RENEWABLE ENERGY CONFERENCE

(Laramie, WY) The Converse Area New Development Organization (CANDO) recognized Trihydro Corporation in Laramie for its innovative activities in the energy sector during the annual Roping the Wind Renewable Energy Conference cosponsored by the Wyoming Business Council, the Department of Energy, and the Western Area Power Administration. Trihydro was chosen this year due to their progressive efforts in becoming an ENERGY STAR® partner and is the first privately owned building in Wyoming to earn the ENERGY STAR® label. By leading through example, Trihydro has exemplified the CANDO model of walking the walk. CANDO believes it is important for others in Wyoming to recognize these accomplishments.
