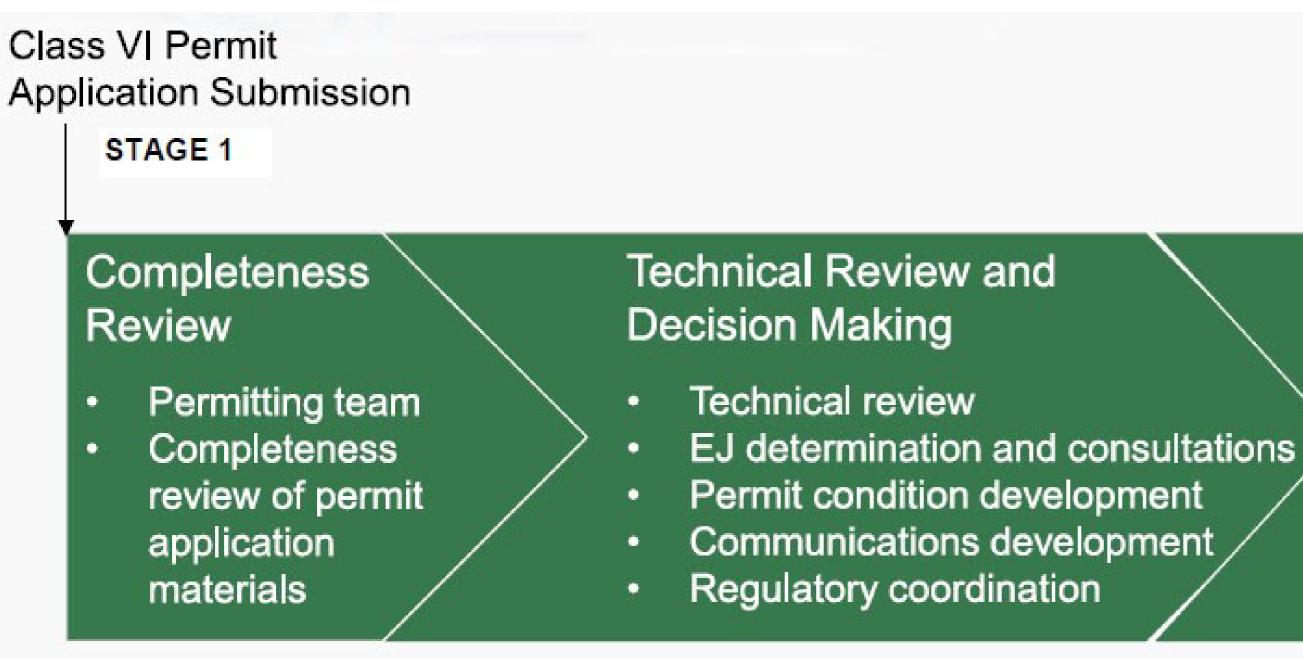

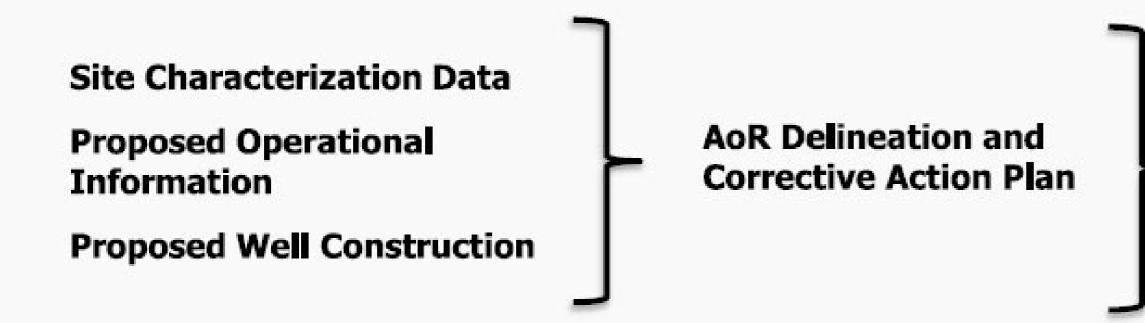

Figure 1: Stage 1 "Permit to Drill/Construct" Steps, Plans, & Process for a Class VI Application

Technical review of permit application information

Source: United States Environmental Protection Agency, adapted by Trihydro

STAGE 2

Once the Class VI UIC well is drilled and testing completed, the applicant will need to update/revise the relevant portions of the permit application and supporting plans to obtain approval to inject/ operate the UIC well.

Finalization

- Draft permit
- Management briefings

- Signatures
- Public hearing
- Public comments
- Final permit to construct,

Class VI Permit to Construct Issued

Testing and Monitoring Plan

Financial Responsibility Demonstration

PISC and Site Closure Plan

Injection Well Plugging Plan

Emergency and Remedial Response Plan